DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

The objection to claim 3 as stated in the previous office action is withdrawn. The Examiner just interpreted the claim to mean that the glass transition temperature is between -60 and -10°C.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1- 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Oota et al. (JP60255873).

Oota et al. discloses a mixture which is used as an adhesive and has excellent adhesion and cohesive force and does not cause lifting and little changes with time. The adhesive comprises mixing a chain transfer agent and a high molecular rubbery polymer such as acrylate copolymers, ethylene/vinyl acetate (EVA) copolymer (pressure sensitive adhesive) with a radiation curable liquid oligomer (see abstract) as required by claim 1. The adhesive comprises at least one acrylic adhesive (i.e. acrylate copolymer) as required by claim 2. The glass transition temperature of EVA is about -17°C as required by claim 3. The adhesive has a molecular weight of 300,000 as required by claim 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
 2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
 3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
 4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
3. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Oota et al.

Oota et al. discloses a mixture as claimed by claim 1 which is used as a surface film. Oota et al. does not state that the mixture is applied to a substrate as required by claim 12. However, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art that the if the mixture is used as a surface film, it would have been applied to a surface therefore creating a coated surface.

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Husemann et al. discloses a method for reducing flow viscosity of a composition wherein the composition comprises a polyacrylate having functional groups crosslinkable by UV irradiation such as ac RESIN A 203 UV and A258 UV (abstract and see col. 4).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 7-11 and 13-15 and 17-18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

1. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
